107 PRINCES STREET,
EDINBURGH.

BUSINESS BOOKS.

R. G. & S. beg respectfully to draw attention to their facilities for the Manufacture of ACCOUNT BOOKS, to which they devote especial attention. These comprise,— LEDGERS, in every variety of Ruling and in every style of Stationery Binding. Rough or Smooth Calf, Vellum, Russia, Basil, or Parchment.

ALSO

DAY BOOKS, CASH BOOKS, JOURNALS, and MISCELLANEOUS OFFICE BOOKS, with Printed Headings of all kinds, the Workmanship being Guaranteed.

OFFICE AND LAW STATIONERY, of every Description, supplied to

BANKS, INSURANCE and other COMPANIES, LEGAL and COMMERCIAL OFFICES, &c.

Directions in Ordering Account Books.

R. G. & S. send to take instructions and give estimate of the cost of any Book, or set of Books, when required; but in the case of orders from a distance, attention is respectfully requested to the following suggestions:—

Size of Paper.—The size of the Paper to be stated in inches, or by name, such as Foolscap, Demy, Royal, Long or Broad Folio, &c.

Description of Paper.—Whether Blue or Cream Laid, Hand-made or Machine.

Thickness of Book.—Number of pages or leaves to be given.

Pattern for Ruling.—Rule an entire sheet to the pattern required, stating number of horizontal faint lines on each page.

Type-Paging or Folioing.—When a Book is PAGED, the numbers run consecutively throughout—1, 2, 3—but when FOLIOED, the opening presents the same number twice; thus 1-1, 2-2.

Index.—If at beginning of Book, or detached in a separate cover, and number of pages to each letter.

Description of Binding.—Whether in Calf (rough or smooth), Vellum, Russia, Basil, or Parchment, either with or without Russia bands.

Lettering.—It should be stated if the Lettering is to be on the side or back, or both. When the Book is to correspond with another, the colour of the Lettering piece should also be given, and the exact position it is to be placed on the Book.

[The usual non-participating Rates of other Offices differ little from these Premiums.]

* A person of 30 may secure £1000 at death, by a yearly payment, during life, of £20 : 15s.

This Premium would generally elsewhere secure £800 only, instead of £1000.

OR, he may secure £1000 by 21 yearly payments of £27 : 13 : 4—being thus free of payment after age 50.

† At age 40, the Premium ceasing at age 60 is, for £1000, £33 : 14 : 2,—about the same as most Offices require during the whole term of life. Before the Premiums have ceased, the Policy will have shared in at least one division of profits. To Professional Men and others, whose income is dependent on continuance of health, the limited payment system is specially recommended.

Of the respective portions of the County Directory of Scotland have been printed as Sectional Directories, and may be had from the Publishers.

A. (SECTION I.) RURAL RESIDENCES, being a complete alphabetical list of Gentlemen's Seats and Rural Residences in Scotland, with the names of the respective Occupants and their full Postal Addresses, also the nearest Telegraph Office and distance; WITH MAP OF SCOTLAND, specially printed for the County Directory by Messrs Bartholomew & Co. 7s. 6d. Nett.

B. (SECTION II.) RURAL OCCUPANTS, being the names of Occupants of Rural Residences alphabetically arranged, with the full Postal Addresses of the same. 7s. 6d. Nett.

C. (SECTION III.)

THE TOWN, VILLAGE, AND PARISH, POSTAL AND TELEGRAPH DIRECTORY OF SCOTLAND, being a complete list of Towns, Villages, Inhabited Islands, Parishes, Counties, County Council Districts, Registration and School Board Districts, Post Offices, Telegraph Stations, and Railway Stations, and containing the names of certain Professional and Official Occupants, together with the respective Postal and Telegraphic Addresses of the various places. With Appendix and Map, 5s. Nett.

OWING to the labour and length of time necessary to collect information from so great a variety of sources, spread over the whole of Scotland, and to adjust, prepare for press, and entirely re-set and correct the vast number of multifarious entries contained in the County Directory, it is in contemplation to issue in future only one section at a time, A. and B. alternately, and C. annually, if such can be arranged.

By this arrangement the contents would more nearly correspond to the date of publication, as the interval necessary for collaboration, correspondence, and correction of proofs would be confined to the respective parts. Time would also be saved which is necessary for the transposition and adjustment of one section for another, and for the printing of the second section after the first is ready for the public. Still further to facilitate the issue, and to limit the area of inquiry and correspondence, sometimes much involved, it may be desirable to reduce the ever increasing category of Villas within the free delivery, which are in such proximity to Towns or Villages that the Postal and Telegraph information given in Section III. may be regarded as sufficient, besides being also of a less variable nature. The entries of this kind are naturally a fruitful source of error through constant removals, and seem unsuitable for insertion in a County Directory, which cannot be issued annually, however much a number of subscribers may so desire, and which is only designed to be a Directory to Mansions, Farms, and Rural Holdings, the occupants of which have presumably a tenure of some years, and the importance of which gives them a claim to be included in a work of the kind.

The Publishers will be glad to have any suggestions for the improvement of the work. They have already been asked to include in the Town and Village Section all Justices of the Peace and Legal County Officials. To these might be added Station Agents, Chairmen of Local Authorities, and, generally, such Stipendiary Officials whose names it might be desirable to ascertain, or to whom it might be necessary to send communications addressed to them individually. Although such are suggested, however, the probability of frequent changes—for example, in the case of Station Agents—might make the insertion of a particular individual a source of unintentional error, and cause inconvenience when an entry was relied on, as it might be without consideration.

SECTION III.

TOWNS AND VILLAGES: PARISHES, etc.

The Postal Address of a Place follows immediately after the Colon.

Where the Post-Town and Telegraph Office are identical, the name is printed in ITALICS; but when not so, the Telegraph Office is added (also in Italics) after the letters T. O.

 Indicates Money-Order and Savings-Bank Offices, where also Government Stock and Insurance business is transacted.*

The names of Postal Telegraph Offices (including Railway Stations where business is done on behalf of the Postmaster-General) are printed as they occur in the Alphabetical arrangement, in ITALIC CAPITALS.

County Council Districts appear under their respective Counties.

For Explanation respecting Population "(Village)" and all Small Type Entries, see Note at the end of this Section.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

POPULATION OF PLACES.

In the above Section the population of Towns, Villages, Parishes, and Islands is taken from the Census Tables of 1891. In these tables places with a population of 2000 and upwards are classified as Towns, and all Villages given have a population of not less than 300.

The Parishes are the Ecclesiastical Parishes, but the population of the Civil Parishes, subsequent to the report of the Boundary Commissioners, will be found in Appendix F.

“Pop.” preceding the number of the population denotes a Town or Village; and if followed by “par.” an Ecclesiastical Parish as well as a Town or Village. “Pop. par.” denotes a Parish only, and “Isl. pop.” an Island. When “par.” follows the latter it signifies a Parish, either of the whole Island or a part thereof, or one including other Islands or portion of such. No population can be given of the lesser Villages, but they are parenthetically indicated “(village)” † or “(hamlet).” Some entries signify Church Mission, Registration, School Board, or Inspector of Poor Districts, which may generally be recognised by the names of Clergy or Registrars, &c., and as the object of the Directory is to give the addresses of official persons, Clergy, Registrars, Inspectors of Poor, and Clerks to School Boards, may also appear under a village which may not itself be called by the name of a district.*

AREA OF TOWNS, VILLAGES, AND ECCLESIASTICAL PARISHES.

The Area of a Town or Village is not always conterminous with a commonly supposed one, and the Ecclesiastical Parishes denoted are frequently formed out of portions of previously existing parishes, sometimes of the same and sometimes of a different name. In many cases they have been constructed out of more than one parish.

ISLANDS.

Islands may be a portion of a Parish or may embrace more than one, and part of the same Island may belong to different Parishes.

ENTIRE PARISHES, TOWNS, AND VILLAGES.

Frequently the Parochial Boundaries cover portions of two Counties, but the population is always given for the entire Ecclesiastical Parish; so likewise is the population of a Town or Village always to be understood to be that of the entire Town or Village, parts of which may be in different Counties.

TOWNS OR VILLAGES AND PARISHES OF THE SAME NAME.

A Parish of the same name as a Town or Village may include the whole, or be only a part of such. The populations of the two classes, therefore, may have no relation to each other, so that when a Town and a Parish have a common name, and the Parochial population is less than that given for the Town, the Parish must have a more limited area within, or partly within, the Town.

COUNTIES AND VARIOUSLY COMPUTED “POPULATIONS.”

The population of the Counties is taken from the same tables, but the effect of the orders of the Boundary Commissioners was to alter the population of twenty-five Counties, eight only remaining as in the original Census Tables (see Appendix F.) It should be noted that the population given in any quotation from County Council or Parochial Board Lists is not what is here represented. In the case of the former the “Burghs” are deducted, and in regard to the latter an Ecclesiastical Parish may not be conterminous with the Poor Law Parish. A similar distinction has to be observed for the Registration Districts and School Board Districts.

* “Par.” has been inadvertently omitted in entries Arbutnott, Ardclach, Assynt, Benholm, Burra Island (East par. and West par.), Cawdor, Cleish, Cross and Burness, Dallas, Drainie, Duffus, Durriss, Dyke, Edinkillie, Evie, Farr, Fetteresso, Firth and Stennis, Fordoun, Garvoch, Glenberrie, Kinneff, Lady, Lairg, Latheron, Logie (Bridge of Allan), Loth, Maryculter, Marykirk.

† The following may be regarded as lesser villages: Anwoth, Belhaven, Cargill, Cross, Dalsersf, Little Dunkeld, Essie, Fogo, Haggs, Inchinnan, Kingston (Dunlop), Kinloch Rannoch, Kinnettles, Knock (Stornoway), Legerwood, Liff, Maxton.

COUNTY DIRECTORY OF SCOTLAND.

BOUNDARY ORDERS.

The effect of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, was, inter alia, the institution of a Boundary Commission for Scotland to frame orders dealing with Counties, Burghs, and Parishes, and detached parts of Counties and Parishes, so that each Burgh and Parish, if the Commissioners thought it necessary or expedient, might be within a single County.

The Boundary orders only came into force, with few exceptions, subsequent to the Census taken 5th April 1891. The original Census Report, therefore, had only reference to parishes before the operation of any Boundary orders. These orders, however, did not affect the Ecclesiastical subdivisions or quoad sacra parishes which the Publishers of the County Directory regard as more nearly representing any given district, inasmuch as to have given the population of a quoad civilia parish of 5470 and, consequently, to have left out the quoad sacra one formed out of it, and having a population of 1716, would not have rightly represented the respective districts. A district, too, which, quoad sacra, might bear the name of a well-known and populous place would only have appeared with its town population, while a widely-spread and not so well-known one would include such. Compare entries—Tranent, Cockenzie, Portobello, Duddingston.

Although it was thus necessary for the purposes of the County Directory to give the Ecclesiastical Parishes unaffected by the Boundary Commission, the Publishers have supplemented this information with a table of the Counties and Civil Parishes existing subsequent to the operation of the Boundary Commissioners' orders, especially as all such will become the basis of future reports which may be issued in connection with the present Census. For this same reason the Map prepared for the Directory follows the new Boundaries of Counties.

COUNTIES AND CIVIL PARISHES AFFECTED BY BOUNDARY ORDERS.

It will be seen on reference to the tables, Appendix F., what Counties and Parishes have been affected by the Commissioners, and also what Civil Parishes are now conterminat with Ecclesiastical Parishes.

REGISTRATION DISTRICTS.

As already indicated The Registration Districts are sometimes conterminat with the Civil Parish and sometimes not. In the cases not limited by the Sheriff's designation of a special Registration district under section 10 of the Act of 1854, in contra-distinction to cases where the Registration district is simply the parish, as defined in section 8 of the Act, the effect which the Boundary Orders had upon Registration districts was to make both Civil Parish and Registration district conterminat. This could not, however, be done when it would affect in any way a special Registration district not conterminat with a Civil Parish. Re-adjustment of the older Registration districts upon the lines of the re-arrangement of Civil Parishes by the Boundary Commissioners can only now be done by petition to the Sheriff.

SMALL TYPE ENTRIES.

All the small type entries have been corrected with Official January Lists, supplemented with information given effect to in the proof sheets. These lists have a presumed degree of permanency, but when communications are important the official designation of an individual is recommended.

MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS.

Every endeavour has been made to give the Medical Practitioners correctly. There are some, however, retired from practice who have desired that their names should not appear; others are only given as County Council Medical Officers; while, on the other hand, there are probably a number of young practitioners whose addresses are not intended to be of a permanent nature. The Burgh Medical Officers have not been specially indicated.

PROVOSTS. CONVENERS. CHAIRMEN.

Provosts of all Royal, Parliamentary, and Police Burghs will be found in Appendix B.; Chairmen of Parochial Boards in Appendix C.; Conveners and Chairmen of County Councils in Appendix D.

PEERS AND MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.

A List of Peers connected with Scotland, and Members of Parliament, is given in the Appendix A. and A. A.

HOW THE CHROMATIC SORTATION CODE

WAS APPLIED IN THE

Compilation of the COUNTY DIRECTORY.

FIRST SECTION.

Preparation of Dockets.

AFTER calculating that the leading entries in the Directory were 40,000, docketts were prepared in the various combinations of coloured papers, printings, and edgings described in the specification of the Chromatic Sortation Code (Giles'

Improvements in Indexing or Cataloguing, Patent 1957⁹¹), and in the manner therein explained. Upon each of these docketts was affixed an entry, the markings of which corresponded to the place of the same entry in the former edition; and likewise a gummed duplicate, attached by its blank margin only, so as to be easily detached at a later stage.

Sortation of Docketts under Post Offices.

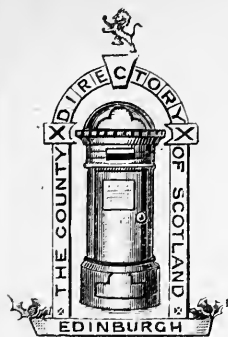

The whole of the docketts having been kept in the Directory alphabetical order, as regulated by the code, were then sorted under the names of the most frequently recurring Post towns alongside of a miscellaneous arrangement under divisions of the alphabet, and afterwards under the respective offices throughout Scotland. In this process every docket was turned over upon the preceding one in the same division and retained its alphabetical place in its own packet.

Transference of Duplicate Entries to Postmaster's Sheets.

There being thus brought together all the entries throughout the work under the delivery of the respective places, the gummed duplicates were detached in order from the docketts and transferred to sheets. In the latter columns were left blank for each Postmaster's corrections in respect of name of Residence, Postal Address, nearest Telegraph Office, distance therefrom, and Occupant, sheets also accompanying every packet for additional places to be inserted in the new edition.

Editing Revised Sheets.

On the return of the sheets, they were first edited in respect of the relation of their contents to official information, redundancies being expunged, deficiencies supplied, repetitions in adjoining Post Town lists compared, and differences reconciled. Numerous corrections, unexplained deletions, doubtful entries, and data of various kinds were then collected out of every Postmaster's list, grouped under Head Offices, and referred on query sheets to the latter, or in many cases to the Sub-Offices direct. These query sheets contained blank counterfoils for correcting the respective entries. This done, the sheets had then to be methodically examined, as far as new information had been obtained respecting numerous and most varied Postal and Telegraphic re-arrangements. A very large proportion of these sheets passed many times through the Editorial Departments, and involved constant cross referencing, while a quantity were again referred to the Local Postmasters for explanations not otherwise obtainable. All Information Forms code-marked and referenced, and letters from Occupants and the public generally were kept sorted for comparison with the semi-official returns. Where any of these disagreed the entries had to be adjusted, an Occupant being the authority in respect of Residence, and the Postmaster in regard to Postal and Telegraphic information.

Correction of Dockets.

The entries being thus postally edited as far as circumstances enabled them to be at the particular stage, the transference of corrections to the docketts was accomplished in two processes: By the first cognizance was taken of cancels, changes of the names of Residences and the names of Occupants, and in the case of Section III. (Towns and Villages), of all changes made in small type entries relating to professional and official names. By the second process every change relating to Post Town, Telegraph Office, distance, Telegraph Hours, and Railway Stations had to be transferred to the docketts; and, to guard against error, every sheet was examined for one class of changes at a time, sub-divisions being sometimes necessary when sheets were complicated by Postal and Telegraphic changes, affecting in varied ways many entries, sometimes in regard to Post Towns and sometimes in respect of Telegraph Offices or distances. Most Telegraphic changes necessitated directions to alter the character of type in an entry, by their Post Towns becoming Telegraph Offices, or vice versa; and every change of a Telegraph Office involved varied changes of distances, according to the position of a place relative to a different office. When a Postal Address included a Post-Town and Sub-Office, the extension of the Telegraphic system sometimes affected one and sometimes the other, and occasionally both, or transposed their relation to a Residence, the change of a Telegraph Office invariably shortening distances. When the Telegraph Address formed no part of the Postal Address, it had to be placed at the end after the letters T.O.

Re-Sortation of Docketts into Directory Order.

So long as there was a possibility of referring the general contents of a sheet to the Postmasters, or any necessity to give further effect to Postal or Telegraph changes affecting a whole district, the docketts could not be disturbed; but when nominally correct, they were all freed from the order of the Postmasters' lists, for re-sortation into their original or Directory order as syllable code-marked. This was accomplished by a series of sortations by paper colours, pips, edgings, bars, capital letters, and lowercase letters, until every docket had returned to its original place, and all found to be complete.

Adjustments and Interpolations.

It was necessary to make allowances for and to adjust docketts affected by the information collected in respect of names of places changed, postal changes affecting the alphabetical arrangement of places having the same name, deletions, and new entries. Before, therefore, passing the docketts for making up into packets, all that had been thus affected were extracted for duplication after it was ascertained by reference to their order in the former issue that such required to be done. If the change necessitated a transference to another part, a substitute was written to take the docket's normal place, and upon the substitute was indicated the new position of the docket in the re-issue, while the docket itself became a transfer for re-insertion along with the new entries when stapling for the printer. Substitute docketts received the code-markings of the principals, and when originals became transfers, they retained their counterfoil markings, besides receiving those of the docket they had to follow in their final position with asterisk added. Deleted docketts were allowed to remain until it was ascertained that every one was in position. When that stage was reached, the substitutes and deletes were removed and the new entries and transfers set in, the copy being then complete for the compositor, who set up his type from the docketts. A large number of the dockets passed in their course through a great many stages and checkings, and were the source of much reference, enquiry, and correspondence, partly indexed on their face or detailed on their reverse. All dockets corresponding to Information Forms, Law Agents' replies, or special letters from Occupants and the public generally, and to entries which had been included in the query sheets, were easily recognised by the various stampings assigned thereto. The many enquiries into the nature and relation of the entries necessitated continual withdrawal from their place of large numbers of dockets; but, notwithstanding the constant handling of so many, it was comparatively easy to find any docket at any moment, whether in position or waiting sortation at any stage.

SECOND SECTION.

Transposition of Entries.—Differentiation of Dockets.

Before transposing the entries for the Second Section, and to differentiate them as they had appeared in the First Section, the whole were attached to buff dockets, middle edgings being used as ascribed colours for the respective divisions of 100 pages or eight sheets, each sheet being sub-coloured with pip edgings, and then subdivided by four consonant edgings, the eight columns of every four pages being again differentiated by the figure code and the entries individualised by lines (single, double, or triple) drawn obliquely through the respective thirds of a column. This provided for the return of the entries to the order of the first section for another edition. It also enabled any inadvertently clipped entry being at once identified by any remnant. The dockets were partially coloured before attaching the entries, and completed on removal from the guiding wallets.

Marking and Alphabetising Names.

The names of Occupants being at the ends of the entries, it was necessary, in order to aid the sortation of the dockets under such, and to guide the printer's eye, to mark the initial letter of each surname. As this was done, shorthanded initials were added at the margins. By means of these all the dockets, after fanning out, were separated into groups of letters of similar character, such as strokes, curves, etc., and then put under each letter of the alphabet. The respective letters were then banded in packets according to names, each packet having a numbered tally. The name tallies for the packets were divided into three series, the first being confined to most frequently recurring names, e.g., Smith, Stewart, etc., to which special numbers were assigned; the second to other commonly occurring names; and the third to leading names of groups.

The alphabetising of Section II. was completed, first by arranging all the packets of dockets according to their numbers and adding index numbered unusual names to the packets bearing their particular numbers, and then dealing with each packet as the number and nature of each name or names suggested. The plan adopted for strict alphabetising varied according to the class of names in each group, "Mac" requiring exceptional and careful attention.

Discarded and Duplicated Entries.

During the process of shorthanding, Residences without Occupants, or Occupants non-resident, and those having two or more names under the same address, or small typed entries under leading Postal Addresses, were put aside, as were also those of Commercial Firms. White docket duplicates were then written for the additional names on any docket including varying initial or christian names. Of these there were many hundreds. Commercial Firms, however, were not repeated in the

THE CHROMATIC SORTATION CODE.

Second Section (see note at the end of Section I.). The number of entries in the Second Section is about 30,000, and their return to Section I. for a future edition will be by sortation according to their middle place ascribed colours into 100 pages, by left (or pip) edgings into sheets of 16 pages, by right (or consonant) edgings into sets of 4 pages, then by the column colours at the right end of the docketts, and finally by the sortation of the respective thirds of the columns according to the First Section.

THIRD SECTION.

The manipulation of the leading entries in the Third Section followed that of the first, but all small type information and many of the large type entries required special treatment with minor billets and check docketts, the latter being requisite to avoid any Parochial, Registration, or School Board District being omitted or confused with another of the same or similar name.

The Minor Billets Differentiated and Individualised.

The minor billets consisted of various series representing the respective classes of Professional and Official names given in small type, Population, Telegraph Hours, Railway Stations, Counties, etc., each series having a distinctive edge colouring at the left hand end, either of a single colour or two colours variously disposed, so that a docket could only sort into its own series. At the right hand end the figure code individualised each entry or group of entries, according to the index numbers of the official lists, or in the absence of such, according to the numbers affixed by the Editors for readier reference. Of these there were about 14,000.

Revision of Small Type Entries.

For the revision of minor billets according to the latest published lists and before finally adjusting copy for the printer, the whole were sorted under their respective series, easily distinguished by their left hand edgings, sub-sorted under their figure code groups, which represented Counties, Presbyteries, Dioceses, etc., or individual numbers, and then under their syllable code edgings, which brought the places of each group into alphabetical order.

The small type entries being corrected were then sorted by their syllable code and set in beside their chief entries or leading docketts. The entries of the respective billets were then finally checked, new names or new series of names being at the same time added. Before making any corrections on chief docketts, it was convenient, first, to pass out of every packet all minor billets that involved no change.

APPENDIX.

The system applied to the Appendix dealt with 2500 entries.

Law and Principle of the System.

The one law of the system was to have a docket for every event, and every docket so marked under the chromatic sortation code as to differentiate it from every other, and the ruling principle was that of having a defined order by which a docket could be found, first through its chromatic markings and then by its sub-sequenced letters, and by all which it could, when extracted, be replaced in whatever position its respective symbols under any given codification might indicate as its correct place. Under this law and the guiding principle, form and colour of docketts, and places thereon, were respectively reserved for their particular purposes, markings on the lower edges invariably signifying the syllable code, on the left a series code, and on the right the figure code, the upper edges being reserved for the alphabet code when chromatic edgings were preferred to surface letters.

The 'Butler' Patent Vertical Grill Coy.

By Her Majesty's Royal Letters Patent.

OFFICES:

EDINBURGH—72 PRINCES STREET.
LONDON—93 CHEAPSIDE.

This Grill is simple in construction, and easily managed. It can be placed on a counter or any convenient table. The results obtained are perfect, and as will be seen by the drawing shown, BOTH SIDES of a chop or steak are cooked simultaneously, thus reducing the time for cooking by one-half, and, at the same time, retaining all the most nutritious juices in the meat.

Made in one, two, or three sections.

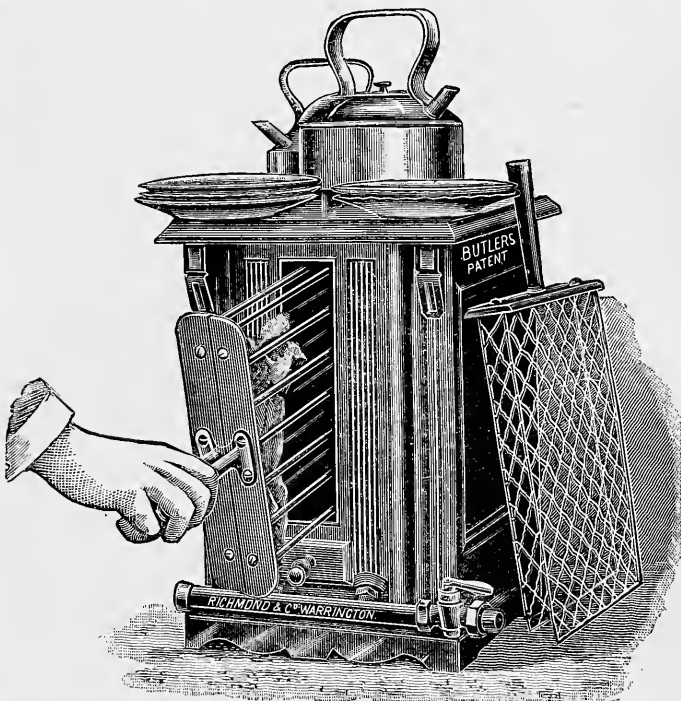

The Grill is supplied complete with Toaster, Meat Grid, and Drip Pan.

Prices:—

1 Section, £4. 4s.
2 Sections and 3 Sections, £8. 8s. and £12. 12s. respectively.

For toasting, it will be found to answer admirably, and two rounds of bread are beautifully toasted in two minutes.

The 'GRAND' GRILL (Butler's Patent).

RICHMOND & COMPANY, LIMITED, Gas Engineers.

CIRCULATION OF LETTERS AND PARCELS IN SCOTLAND.

The deliveries and despatches of letters and parcels in Scotland are, for the most part, regulated by the hours of arrival and despatch of the day and night mails from and to London via the London and North-Western and Caledonian Railways, excepting the Counties of Berwick, Selkirk, Roxburgh, and Haddington, the south mails for which are conveyed by the North-Eastern and North British Railways. The branch posts throughout the country, as a rule, work out of the arrival, and into the despatch of one or other of the London mails.

The Day mail leaves London at 7.15 A.M., arriving in Edinburgh at 5.50 P.M.; Glasgow at 6 P.M.; Aberdeen at 3.5 A.M.; Inverness at 6.10 A.M.; and Wick at 1.25 P.M. The return Up mail leaves Wick at 8 A.M.; Inverness at 3 P.M.; Aberdeen at 5.40 P.M.; Glasgow at 9.5 P.M.; Edinburgh at 9.10 P.M.; arriving in London at 7.20 A.M.

The Night mail leaving London at 8.30 P.M. reaches Dumfries, Edinburgh, Glasgow, and Stirling in time for the first delivery; Perth, Dundee, and Aberdeen in time for the early forenoon delivery; Inverness at 11.5 A.M.; and Wick at 5.25 P.M. The return Up mail leaves Wick at 12.10 A.M. (Sunday, 2.30 A.M.); Inverness at 10.10 A.M.; Aberdeen at 1.10 and 3.40 P.M.; Perth 3.30 and 5 P.M.; Glasgow at 5.55 and 6.55 P.M.; Edinburgh at 6 and 7 P.M.; and reaches London at 3.50 and 4.20 A.M. There is no delivery of letters, &c. in London on Sundays.

The postal communication between London and Edinburgh, the Eastern Counties of Scotland, and the North-Eastern Counties of England, is chiefly by the North British, North-Eastern, and Great Northern Railways. The East Coast trains conveying London mails arrive in Edinburgh at 4.17 A.M., 5.55 A.M., 8.45 A.M., 3.40 P.M., 6.30 P.M., and 11 P.M. London mails are despatched by the same route by the trains leaving Edinburgh at 10 A.M., 2.50 P.M., 6.30 P.M., 7.35 P.M. and 10.30 p.m.

Irish Mails.

Letters for Dublin and the South of Ireland are forwarded by the London Up Night mail (6 P.M.) daily via Holyhead. For the whole of Ireland, letters posted in Edinburgh up till 7.30 P.M., in Glasgow up till 10.30 P.M., are sent via Ardrossan and Belfast, arriving in Belfast at 5 A.M. and Dublin at 10.45 A.M. the following morning. Parcels for the whole of Ireland are also forwarded via Ardrossan. A return mail leaves Dublin at 5.30 P.M.; Belfast at 9.30 P.M., arriving in Glasgow in time for the early morning delivery, and in Edinburgh for the forenoon one. Letters and parcels are also forwarded for the whole of Ireland by the Day mail via Stranraer and Larne, Saturdays excepted. A return mail is due from Belfast by the London Down Night mail, except on Mondays.

COUNTY DIRECTORY OF SCOTLAND.

Mails for the Orkney and Shetland Islands.

The Orkney mails are conveyed daily (excepting Sundays), from Thurso at 6 P.M. and from Kirkwall at 10.30 A.M.

The Shetland mails are conveyed in summer (1st May to 30th September) from Aberdeen every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at 11 A.M., returning from Lerwick to Aberdeen every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 8 P.M. In winter (1st October to 30th April) the mails are forwarded from Aberdeen on Tuesday and Thursday at 11 A.M., and on Friday at 5 P.M. and 11 P.M. alternately, returning from Lerwick on Monday, Thursday, and Saturday at 8 P.M.

Mails for Skye and the Hebrides, &c.

The mails leave Strome Ferry daily (except Sundays) at 3 P.M. for Stornoway, Portree, Dunvegan, and Lochmaddy, returning from Stornoway at 1 A.M.; Portree at 6.45 A.M.; Dunvegan at 6 P.M.; and Lochmaddy at 12 and 2 P.M. on alternate days.

Mails for Barra, North Uist, South Uist, and Benbecula leave Oban at 6 A.M., returning to Oban at 3 P.M. daily.

The Mails for the Islands of Canna and Rum leave Oban at 6 A.M. on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, and return on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday at 3 P.M.

The mails for the Islands of Coll, Tiree, and Iona leave Oban at 6 A.M. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 1st October to 30th May, and at 10 A.M. from 1st June to 30th September, returning to Oban at 3 P.M. on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday all the year round.

RATES OF POSTAGE, AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

Inland Letters.

The prepaid rates of postage are as follows, viz. :—

For a letter not exceeding 1 oz., . . . 1d.
,, above 1 oz., but not exceeding 2 oz., 1½d.

and so on at the rate of a halfpenny for every additional 2 oz.

A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

No letter may exceed 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, or 6 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office.

The rate of postage for Foreign and Colonial letters is 2½d. per half ounce.

Post Cards.

Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp may be transmitted between places in the United Kingdom with letters written or printed upon the back.

No communication may be written, printed, or impressed on the front, or stamped side, only the address. Nothing whatever may be attached, except adhesive stamps, in payment of additional postage; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any of these rules be infringed the card will be charged 1d. on delivery.

Post Cards impressed with a penny stamp may be sent to all places abroad.

Newspapers.

Any newspaper registered at the General Post Office, London, for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper, may be sent by post singly, or in a packet, for a postage of one halfpenny for each newspaper, prepaid either by an adhesive stamp or by the use of a stamped wrapper; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate than would be chargeable on a book-packet of the same weight. A newspaper, or packet of newspapers, posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

Every newspaper should be so folded as to permit its title being readily seen. If a cover be used it must be open at both ends in order that it may be easily removed for the purpose of examination.

No newspaper and no cover of a newspaper may bear anything (not being part of the newspaper), except the names and addresses of the sender and the addressee, the title of the newspaper and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. No unregistered publication, and no article (not being part of the newspaper or a supplement thereto), may be posted in, or in the same cover with, the newspaper.

A packet of newspapers must not exceed 14 lbs. in weight, 2 feet in length, and 1 foot in width or depth.

The rate of postage on newspapers for places abroad is the same as for book-packets, namely, one halfpenny for every two ounces. For further particulars, see Post Office Guide.

Inland Book Post.

The rate of postage is a halfpenny for every 2 oz. or fraction thereof. No book-packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, or 6 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government office. If not sufficiently prepaid, double the deficiency will be charged; and if sent unpaid, a double rate of postage is charged.

Book-packets may be posted either without covers (in which case they must not be fastened in any way), or in unfastened envelopes, or in covers which may be easily removed for the purpose of examination without breaking any seal. If anything is written or printed on the inside of the covers, the covers must be left unfastened. A book-packet may be tied with string, but the string should be easy to unfasten.

Circulars may be sent at the book-rate of postage, but reference should be made to the

GENERAL POSTAL INFORMATION.

Post Office Guide as to the description of documents allowed and conditions.

For information respecting rates of postage and regulations applying to book-packets for places abroad, see the Post Office Guide.

Inland Pattern and Sample Post.

The transmission of bonâ fide trade patterns and samples of merchandise is allowed between places in the United Kingdom under the following conditions:—

For a packet weighing under 4 oz., . . . 1d.
 „ above 4 oz. and under 6 oz., 1½d.
 „ above 6 oz. „ 8 oz., 2d.

No packet must exceed 8 oz. in weight, 12 inches in length, 8 inches in width, and 4 inches in depth.

If a packet be posted wholly unpaid, it will be charged on delivery, with double postage; or, if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency. If it contains any writing which would not be admissible by Book Post it will be charged at the letter rate.

No article sent for sale, or in execution of an order, will, under any circumstances, be admissible. If such a packet be posted, prepaid at the pattern rate only, it will be charged with double the deficient postage at the letter rate, together with a fine of 6d. Powder, glass, grease, liquid, or semi-liquid are prohibited.

Patterns and samples must be sent in wrappers (marked “Pattern Post” or “Sample Post”), open at the ends, or in unfastened envelopes, in order that they may be easily withdrawn for examination.

The name and address of the trader or firm by whom the packet is sent must in all cases be conspicuously printed, or stamped, on the label or cover; if this is not done the packet will be charged with double the deficient postage at the letter rate.

Colonial and Foreign Pattern and Sample Post.

The pattern and sample post to Foreign Countries and the Colonies generally is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise.

No article liable to custom duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

For further particulars as to rates of postage, &c., see Post Office Guide.

Inland Parcel Post.

Parcels not exceeding 11 lbs. in weight, 3 feet 6 inches in length, or 6 feet in length, and girth combined, are received at any Post Office for transmission between places in the United Kingdom.

The rates of postage are as follows:—

For a parcel not exceeding 1 lb., . . . 3d.
 „ exceeding 1 lb., and under 2 lbs., . . . 4½d.
 and so on at the rate of 1½d. for every additional lb.

In every case the postage must be paid by means of postage stamps.

Parcels intended for transmission by Parcel Post must be handed in at a Post Office, and the words “Parcel Post” should be conspicuously written in the left hand top corner. The name and address of the sender should also appear on the cover to facilitate the return of parcels which cannot be delivered.

Parcels containing any enclosure in a condition likely to injure other parcels or any officer of the Post Office are prohibited.

A certificate of posting of a parcel can be obtained at any Post Office.

Parcels may be forwarded to, or sent from, the Channel Islands under the same general conditions with regard to size, and rates of postage, as parcels for all other portions of the United Kingdom. Such parcels, however, are liable to Customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender is therefore required to make a declaration of contents upon a form provided for the purpose at the office where the parcel is posted.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office, “to be called for,” are liable to a demurrage charge at a rate of 1d. a day, after they have remained in the Office one clear day.

Rural postmen are required to accept parcels from the public for despatch wherever they collect letters.

Reference should be made to the Post Office Guide for the rates, &c., on parcels for abroad.

Postage Stamps, Wrappers, and Envelopes.

Postage stamps available for the prepayment of all articles sent by post, and also for Telegrams, are of the respective values of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 4½d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., 10s., and £1.

Embossed envelopes bearing a halfpenny stamp are of two sizes:—“Commercial,” sold at the rate of ten for 5½d.; and “Foolscap,” at ten for 6d. There are three kinds of the embossed envelopes, bearing a penny stamp, which are sold at twenty for 1s. 10d., twenty-four for 2s. 2d., and twenty for 1s. 9d. respectively.

Embossed envelopes may also be obtained bearing a twopenny-halfpenny stamp for foreign postage at 2s. 2½d. and 2s. 3d. per packet of ten.

Letter Cards are sold at four for 4½d., or 9s. per parcel of ninety-six.

Newspaper wrappers bearing impressed halfpenny and penny stamps are sold at seven for 4d. and eight for 8½d. respectively.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps, or of embossed or impressed stamps cut out from envelopes, cards, wrappers, or telegraph message forms.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom, at whose offices Money Order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public at a charge of 2½d. per cent. They must in all cases be presented in strips of not less than two.

COUNTY DIRECTORY OF SCOTLAND.

REGISTRATION.

By the prepayment of a fee of 2d., in addition to the ordinary postage, any postal packet, including parcels, may be registered to any place in the United Kingdom. Every article to be registered should be so marked, and with the amount of the fee proper to the value up to which the sender desires to secure compensation, thus, "Registered 2d., Registered 3d." Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it; it must on no account be dropped into a letter-box. Any article marked "Registered" dropped into a letter-box will be liable to a registration fee of 8d. (less any amount which may have been prepaid, instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.)

Registered letter envelopes of various sizes (for foreign as well as inland letters), bearing a twopenny stamp embossed on the flap for the payment of the registration fee, have been prepared for the greater security in the transmission of notes, coins, &c., and can be had at any Post Office.

No town postman is allowed to take postal packets for registration, but rural postmen may do so wherever it is practicable.

The sender of an inland registered packet may obtain an acknowledgment of its delivery to the addressee by the payment of a fee at the time of posting, in addition to the postage and registration fee of 2d.

COMPENSATION.

By law the Postmaster-General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered packets; but, subject to certain conditions (for which see the Post Office Guide), compensation up to a maximum limit of £50 will be given for the loss of inland registered postal packets of all kinds upon prepayment of a fee in addition to the ordinary postage. This fee either consists of, or includes in each case, the ordinary registration fee of 2d., and the scale of fees and the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—

For a fee of 2d. the compensation is . . .	£5
" 3d. " " " " " "	£10

and so on at the rate of £5 for every additional penny of a fee. The fee limit is 11d., and the compensation £50.

REDIRECTION.

No charge is made for the redirection of letters, provided that they are reposted not later than the day after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened. If reposted later than the day after delivery, they are liable to a charge at the prepaid rate. Any which appear to have been opened will be charged as freshly posted unpaid letters.

Post cards, book packets, sample packets, newspapers, and parcels are, when redirected, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each redirection. But redirected parcels are not subjected to additional postage if the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office. If any redirected letter or packet marked "Registered" is dropped into a letter box, instead of being taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered, it will be surcharged with a registration fee of 8d., less the value of stamps already affixed for registration.

COLLECTION.

Arrangements are made for the collection, by postmen, of ordinary letters, &c., from private letter-boxes, of approved pattern, at hotels, offices, business premises, &c. The Postmaster of the town at which the accommodation is desired will give the particulars as to the rate and hours of collection.

EXPRESS DELIVERY.

Local Service.

Letters, parcels, and other articles are accepted at all Post Offices, from which there is a delivery of telegrams, and are delivered by special messenger in any part of the town or rural district.

For a letter or other article not exceeding 1 lb. in weight, the express fee is 3d., if the distance does not exceed 1 mile. For every lb. or part of a lb. beyond the first lb., 1½d.; and for every mile or part beyond the first mile, the charge is 3d. additional. All charges must be prepaid in postage stamps to be affixed to a form provided for the purpose. If the sender desires a special conveyance to be used, the actual cost must be paid in addition to the above charges. If the distance exceeds two miles, and a public conveyance (i.e., railway, omnibus, or tramcar, &c.) is not available in both directions, the actual cost of a special conveyance must in all cases be paid in addition to the express fees.

Every packet must be handed in at a Post Office; and in the left-hand corner of the cover the words "Express Delivery" must be legibly written by the sender. In no case should a packet, intended for delivery in town by express messenger, be placed in a letter-box.

On the delivery of an express packet the messenger may take a reply, or perform a further express delivery service. A telegraph messenger, on delivering a telegram, may, if desired, take back to the Post Office, where he is employed, a postal packet for express delivery.

Letters, &c., to be posted in the late fee letter boxes attached to the mail trains, or railway letters, for transmission by ordinary trains, are accepted for immediate conveyance by express messenger to the railway stations. For the fees, application should be made to the local Postmaster.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF MAIL LETTERS, &c.

Letters and parcels forwarded by mail in the regular course of post, may, on arrival at the office of delivery, be sent out for delivery by special messenger. The words "Express Delivery" must be legibly marked above the address on the left-hand side of the cover. In the case of a letter the cover should also be marked with a broad perpendicular line from top to bottom, both on the front and back.

In addition to the ordinary postage, the express fee for this service is 3d. for every mile or part of a mile from the office of delivery. The fee is in no case less than 3d., and this and the postage must be prepaid by means of stamps affixed to the letter or parcel. If the sender desires that a special conveyance be used, or if the distance exceeds two miles, and a public conveyance is not available in both directions, the actual cost of a special conveyance must be paid in addition to the express fee and postage. The sender is responsible for the fee and charges.

On the delivery of a letter or parcel, the messenger may, if desired, perform a further service.

Persons or firms who desire at any time to receive their letters or other postal matter in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz. :—

The full express fee of 3d. a mile for one packet, and 1d. for every ten, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first.

Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters or parcels are delivered. The application should reach the Post Office from which the letters, &c., are ordinarily delivered, on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to the other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by postman commences. A fee of 3d. should be affixed to the application, and any further charges must be paid to the messenger on delivery of the articles.

INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS SERVICE.

Arrangements have been made for the delivery, by special messenger, of letters, &c., marked "Express," despatched from this country to certain foreign countries, and also for delivery in London and the United Kingdom generally, by special messenger, of express letters, &c., received from those countries.

For list and fees, &c., see Post Office Guide.

SINGLE POST LETTERS BY RAILWAY.

Certain railway companies (for list of which see Post Office Guide) have entered into an agreement with the Postmaster-General to accept and convey, by the next available train, inland post letters, not exceeding one ounce in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office letter-box for delivery by postman.

Every letter intended for transmission as a railway letter must be taken to the passenger station of the railway company over whose line it is to be sent, and tendered, during such hours as the station is open to the public, to a servant of the railway company in the parcel booking, or, if that Office be closed, to the passenger booking office.

In addition to a penny for postage, a fee of 2d. will be charged. The stamp or stamps for the postage must be affixed by the sender to the cover in the same way as an ordinary post-letter; while the fee of 2d. should be paid in cash to the railway servant.

MONEY ORDERS.

Inland.

The Commission on Inland Money Orders is :—

For sums not exceeding £1,	2d.
„ above £1 and not exceeding £2,	3d.
„ „ £2 „ „	£4, 4d.
„ „ £4 „ „	£7, 5d.
„ „ £7 „ „	£10, 6d.

No order may contain a fractional part of a penny.

No money order can be issued unless the applicant furnishes the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address.

The holder of a money order may direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted. An order once issued cannot be cancelled. The remitter of an order may make it payable ten days after date, provided that, when he obtains the order, he affix thereto, in the presence of the Postmaster, a penny stamp, writing his signature across it. Money orders do not require a receipt stamp.

No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a money order at the expected time.

After once paying a money order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

Foreign and Colonial.

For the rates of commission, and the list of the foreign countries to which money orders can be sent, see Post Office Guide.

Telegraph Money Orders, Inland.

Money may be transmitted by telegraph money order between all post offices in the United Kingdom authorised to transact telegraph and money order business, and payment of the order can be obtained between the hours during which such offices are open for the transaction of general postal business. At those offices, however, which forward but do not deliver telegrams, telegraph money orders can be issued, but cannot be paid.

The Commission is :—

For sums not exceeding £1,	4d.
„ above £1 and not exceeding £2,	6d.
„ „ £2 „ „	£4, 8d.
„ „ £4 „ „	£7, 10d.
„ „ £7 „ „	£10, 1s.

COUNTY DIRECTORY OF SCOTLAND.

In addition to the Commission, a charge is made, at the ordinary Inland rate, for the official telegram authorising payment at the office of payment, and for the repetition thereof, the minimum being 9d. The Post Office does not undertake to advise the payee of the despatch of a telegraph money order.

No telegraph money order can be issued for a greater amount than £10.

In other respects, telegraph money orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary money orders.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal orders, for certain fixed sums from 1s. to £1, are now issued and paid at all money order offices in the United Kingdom.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the poundage payable in respect of each order:—

1s., 1s. 6d.,	poundage ½d.
2s., 2s. 6d., 3s., 3s. 6d., 4s.,	} ,, 1d.
4s. 6d., 5s., 7s. 6d., 10s.,
10s. 6d.
15s., 20s.	} ,, 1½d.

Broken amounts, not being fractions of a penny, may be made up by the use of postage stamps, not exceeding 5d. in value, affixed to the face of any one postal order.

The person to whom a postal order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid.

If a postal order be crossed, payment will only be made through a bank.

The holder of a postal order may, in writing on the face thereof, direct that payment be deferred for any period not exceeding ten days; but in such cases the name of some Money Order Office at which the order shall be paid should be inserted in the body of the order.

After a postal order has once been paid to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the order be cut, defaced or mutilated, payment may be refused.

. POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.

Every Postal Savings Bank Office is open for the receipt of deposits on week days during the hours appointed for the sale of stamps, commencing at 8 A.M. Every such office is also open for the payment of withdrawals on week days during certain hours, which are specified in a notice exhibited at the Office.

Ordinary deposits of one shilling, or any number of shillings, will be received, to the extent of £50 in one year, ending 31st December, and £200 in all, including interest.

For further particulars reference should be made to the Post Office Guide.

GOVERNMENT ANNUITIES AND INSURANCES.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1 or more than £100 may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

A list of premium tables, and further particulars, will be found in the Post Office Guide.

SUGGESTIONS TO THE PUBLIC, &c.

Facility is given to the Post Office in the discharge of its duties, and greater security afforded to the public, by attention to the following recommendations:—

- 1st. To post all letters, &c., as early as practicable, especially when sent in large numbers. The work of the Office is much diminished if letters, post cards and circulars, before being posted, be tied in bundles, with the addresses all one way.
- 2nd. To make the address legible and complete, giving the name of the post-town; and if there be another town, of the same name, or if a post town be not well known, adding the name of the county.
- 3rd. To see that every letter, newspaper, or other packet sent by post, is securely folded and fastened. When postage stamps are remitted, they should be enclosed in paper sufficiently thick to prevent them being seen or felt through the cover.
- 4th. Not to send money or any other article of value through the post, except by means of a money order, or in a registered letter.
- 5th. When complaint is made with reference to the loss, miscarriage, or delay of any article sent by post, to furnish the Secretary with information, as precise as possible, regarding the case, and to enclose the cover and any documents that may throw light upon it.
- 6th. To see that every letter contains the full address of the writer in order to ensure its due return, if the person to whom it is directed cannot be found.

The Post Office is not responsible for any injury which books or other articles forwarded by post may sustain. Neither is the Department responsible for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the mis-sending, mis-delivery, loss, &c., of any letter, postal packet, or parcel.

Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think that the letter has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to a Post Office to be weighed, and should have its exact weight certified in writing at the Post Office. The cover should thereafter be forwarded to the Secretary, with a statement of the matter.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

INLAND.

Tariff.

The principal regulations issued for the information of the public are as follows :—

The charge for the transmission of inland telegrams is 6d. for the first twelve words, and a halfpenny for every additional word. Addresses are charged for.

Postage stamps are used for payment, and the public are required to affix them to the message forms just as they are required to affix them to letters.

The sender of a telegram should furnish his address to enable the Department to communicate with him if necessary. When it is not to be telegraphed, it should be written on the back of the form.

Telegrams can be repeated, if the sender desires it, by being signalled back from office to office. No copy is, in such cases, given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one half of the ordinary tariff, a fraction of a penny being reckoned as a halfpenny.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy he may have it repeated by paying half the amount paid for its transmission. The money will be refunded if it should turn out the telegram has been incorrectly transmitted.

The cost of a reply, not exceeding forty-eight words, may be prepaid, and a reply form will be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any Telegraph Office, at any time within two months. If the form be not used, its value will be refunded to the sender of the original telegram on his applying within two months to the Secretary, General Post Office, and on production of the form. A reply form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

Telegrams re-directed to a second address are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 6d. if the two addressees are within the same town (each London postal district being considered for this purpose a separate town), but if the addressees are in different towns the full inland rate is charged for redirection. Removals are registered free for one month when this is especially requested, and instructions for the re-direction of telegrams at hours when the place of business is closed are registered on payment of £1, 1s. per annum ; but in both these cases the telegrams are subject to the usual charge for re-direction and portage.

Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person in the same free delivery are delivered at a charge of twopence per copy, in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy.

Telegrams may be posted in a pillar or wall box. Such telegrams are conveyed by the next collection of letters to the same Post Office, and thence forwarded.

Telegrams posted, insufficiently prepaid, are forwarded, and the deficiency is charged to the addressee ; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

Telegrams in plain language, in any European tongue, or in Latin, are charged for according to the number of words ; but all words not forming part of any European language, or of Latin, are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

No combination of words is counted as one word, with the exception of those which are written as one, or coupled by hyphens.

Abbreviated or arbitrary addresses may be registered on payment of a registration fee of £1, 1s. a year, dating from the day of registration. The address must consist of two words, one of which is to be the name of the town or place of delivery.

Portage and Delivery.

When the terminal office, i.e., the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile, or within the town postal delivery when that extends for more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within one mile only.

When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile or part of a mile, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles ; but the charge is calculated from the boundary within which no portage is levied. If the address is more than three miles from the terminal office, portage is charged for at 1s. per mile for mounted messenger, the charge being reckoned from the office door.

If the sender requires his telegram to be sent by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words "by post" or "by train" at the end of the address (these words being charged for), and in the latter case he must pay the cost, or deposit 1s., if the exact cost is not known. If the sender has undercalculated the charge for portage the deficiency is collected from the addressee on delivery. If the sender pays too much, the excess is refunded.

The Post Office is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams, but every such case will be carefully investigated on the particulars being communicated to the Secretary, General Post Office, Edinburgh, and it will materially assist the Department in such inquiries, if (in instances of incorrect transmission or delay) the applicant will enclose the received message form in his letter.

For full particulars as to the charges, &c., regarding telegrams for places abroad, reference should be made to the Post Office Guide.

SUPPLEMENT.

[TENTH DECENNIAL CENSUS.]

APPENDIX F.

POPULATION OF THE CIVIL COUNTIES AND CIVIL PARISHES SUBSEQUENT TO THE REPORT OF THE BOUNDARY COMMISSIONERS.

The numbers at the beginning of the names of Parishes refer to the Counties in which they are situated, as correspondingly numbered in the list of Counties.

B indicates that the effect of the Boundary Order was to alter the population from that in the previously issued Census Tables of 1891.

* signifies that the Ecclesiastical Parish is coterminate with the Civil Parish.—The population therefore given in Section III. applies to both. Other Parishes in Section III., not found in the following list, are only Ecclesiastical Parishes (quoad sacra).

THE ATTENTION of intending ASSURERS is invited to the NEW PROSPECTUS of this ASSOCIATION, showing most LIBERAL and ADVANTAGEOUS PRIVILEGES to the ASSURED. LOW RATES OF PREMIUM for FIXED BENEFITS. Guaranteed Surrender Values. Policies 'WORLD-WIDE' after FIRST YEAR. ENDOWMENT ASSURANCES payable DURING LIFE. 'Double Benefit' Endowment Assurances—a novel and advantageous scheme, the SUM ASSURED being payable a SECOND TIME, if the life survive the given term. NEW SCHEME OF 'TONTINE BONUS' ASSURANCES. Large Profits to Survivors. NINE-TENTHS of PROFITS given to the ASSURED. The REVERSIONARY BONUS ADDITIONS already declared amount to £1,160,269. At the NINTH QUINQUENNIAL DIVISION of PROFITS at 25th December, 1890, BONUS ADDITIONS were declared on both Whole Term and Endowment Assurances entitled to participate at the RATE of

TWO POUNDS PER CENT. PER ANNUM

for each full Annual Premium paid during the Quinquennium.

INTERIM BONUS at £1, 6s. 8d. per cent. per annum also payable on Policies becoming Claims before Christmas 1895.

The NET CLAIMS by DEATH and ENDOWMENT already paid by the Association exceed £3,300,000. Claims payable on proof of Death and Title.

ANNUITIES GRANTED on favourable terms.

LOANS are granted, in connection with Life Assurance, on LIFE INTERESTS, REVERSIONS, PERSONAL and other approved Securities.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE is a Purely Mutual Office. There are no Shareholders to absorb any portion of the Profits, which are wholly divided among the holders of Participating Policies at intervals of Five Years. Its leading features are—Unquestionable Security, Liberal Conditions of Insurance, and Early Participation in Profits.

At the quinquennial investigation as at 1st March 1893, a bonus of 30s. per cent per annum was declared on all policies participating in the profits in the usual way, calculated not only on the sum assured, but also on bonus additions not previously surrendered.

POSITION OF THE SOCIETY AT 1st MARCH 1893.

The Existing Assurances, including Bonus Additions, were	£11,532,364
The Annual Revenue was	471,946
And the Accumulated Fund was	3,554,744

IMMEDIATE BONUS TABLE.

Very Low Premiums. Sum assured absolutely Guaranteed.

Special attention is invited to this Table which has been recently introduced. Under it Policies can be effected at less than the Without Profit Rates; and a distinguishing feature of it, as compared with the similar Tables given in the Prospectuses of other Societies, is that the sum assured is not liable to any deduction in the event of the future Bonuses falling short of the estimated amounts. Under this TABLE a person aged 30 next birthday can insure £1300 for the PREMIUM REQUIRED to insure £1000 under Table I., thus SECURING an IMMEDIATE BONUS of £300.

ENDOWMENT ASSURANCE POLICIES.

The Society also offers special advantages in its system of Endowment Assurances. The Rates of Premium charged upon these are extremely moderate, and they receive compound Bonuses at the same rate as the ordinary Policies, these Bonuses being payable along with the sum assured on attainment of the stipulated age or on previous death.

The number of Premiums payable is less by one than is charged by many Offices.

Non-Forfeiture Regulations unusually complete, and forfeiture of a valuable Policy impossible.
Guaranteed Surrender Values Endorsed on Policies.

CLAIMS are payable immediately after proof of death and title.

LOANS granted in connection with Life Insurance, on Life Interests, Reversions, and other approved security. Reversions purchased.

SCOTTISH AMICABLE Life Assurance Society.

Established 1826. Incorporated by Special Act of Parliament.

President—THE RIGHT HON. LORD KELVIN OF LARGS, D.C.L., LL.D., P.R.S.

FUNDS, £3,300,000. INCOME, £365,000. CLAIMS PAID, £5,000,000.

Special attention is directed to the MINIMUM PREMIUM SYSTEM. These rates are deservedly popular, being less than usual non-profit rates, thereby admitting of a large assurance at an exceptionally low premium; e.g., the yearly premium payable for life at age 30 for an ordinary 'WITH PROFIT' Policy for £1000 will assure £1326, thus practically securing an IMMEDIATE BONUS of £326 from the commencement of the Policy.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The Life business of the Company is divided into two distinct branches.

I.—THE NON-PARTICIPATING BRANCH, the Assured in which receive no addition to their Policies.

II.—THE PARTICIPATING BRANCH, in which the whole of the surplus, as ascertained at each valuation, belongs to the Policy-holders. Insurers thus obtain the advantages of a Mutual Society. The last Bonus declared was £1, 11s. per cent. per annum.

The Life Funds are exempted by Act of Parliament from any liability for the Fire Obligations of the Company, while a saving in charges is effected by the combined management of the Fire and Life Departments. The Total Expenses of Management in the Life Department, including Agents' Commission, are less than seven and a quarter per cent. of the Revenue from Premiums and Interest.

*N.B.—The Association has no share capital, and cannot be used for any purpose of profit.
The Members of the Council give their services gratuitously.*

President of the Council: SIR DOUGLAS MACLAGAN, Kt., M.D.

THE above-named Association is willing to place its services at the disposal of those who are in treaty for long or short temporary leases of Mansions, Shooting Lodges, Villas, &c., in the Highlands, or elsewhere in Scotland.

It is believed that many persons would be glad to have an honest, scientific, and thorough inspection, and report on the sanitary condition, and appliances of the houses and premises they propose to occupy, were their attention drawn to this Association.

THE CHARGES OF THE ASSOCIATION ARE—

- (1) Two Guineas per Diem for the time occupied by one of their trained Engineers in travelling and inspection, and in writing Report. A day being reckoned at seven hours.
- (2) The actual travelling expenses of the Engineer.

All applications (which must be either made by the 'proprietor,' of the house to be inspected, or by the tenant accompanied by a written permission to inspect from the proprietor) to be addressed to the Secretary—

Col. CHARLES S. NOBLE, 8 South Charlotte Street, Edinburgh.

The Sisters of Mercy

Who conduct this LAUNDRY—opened thirteen years ago, and now enjoying extensive patronage from Families resident in Edinburgh, Schools, and Hotels—solicit further Orders. Terms moderate. Printed Price List to be obtained by application to the Reverend Mother Superior at above address.

The Van collects and returns Washings in all parts of the City and Suburbs.

NEEDLEWORK AND KNITTING ARE ALSO DONE ON THE PREMISES.

The House of Mercy has been established to board, lodge, and train as domestic servants, girls who have no home or proper protection. Numbers of girls are being lost daily for want of those safeguards which a respectable home insures, and which are so necessary for a girl in a city like Edinburgh. Those only who visit the very poorest and lowest localities can know the terrible dangers and temptations by which such girls are surrounded. It is idle to deplore the number of those who fall, and who, besides losing their own souls, bring many others to ruin, if strenuous efforts are not at the same time made to avert this evil. The SISTERS, therefore, confidently appeal to the charitable for assistance in a work which, they venture to think, can have no small claim on their sympathy and support.

Annual Subscriptions, however small, and Donations of Money, Food, or Clothes, will be thankfully acknowledged by the Reverend Mother Superior, who will be happy to show Visitors over the Laundry on Thursdays and Fridays.
